

- 1.The capacity of regeneration of this animals are amazing, if they get hurted they can regenerate the skin and the muscular tissue.
- 2.The scientists are studying the amazing regeneration skills of axolotls to implement it on humans.
- 3.The axolotls conserve their parts of the body when they grow, for example the frogs lose their fin when they grow, but axolotls conserve their characteristics.
- 4.They are amphibians but they still breathing with gills, they have lungs but they don't work to breath
- 5.Axolotls are endangered.
- 6.They are losing their hábitats
- 7.The introduction of new species, causing los of resources
- 8.illegal trafficking of axolotls as a pets, they are wild animals that need to live in their hábitats
- 9.The axolotls are prone to get sickness
- 10.The axolotls look like tadpole
- 11.The axolotls prefer to live in darkness, because they don't have eyelids, so the lights can hurt their eyes
- 12.The axolotls are adapted to live in wáter, they can walk but they can't be on Surface a lot of time.
- 13.The axolotls can have differents colors, since Pink to Brown, whites and blacks
- 14.When axolotls reproduce they generate between 300 to 1000 eggs
- 15.The axolotls are carnivores
- 16.They live between 10 to 12 years, but they can live 15 years in captivity
- 17.They're bones are soft
- 18.They can measure between 15 to 30 centimeters of large, but the average is 15 cms
- 19.The name comes from náhuatl Axolotl that means "water Monster"
- 20.They have four front toes but five back toes
- 21.They usually come from México
- 22.They are from the ambystomatidae family
- 23.They usually live in lakes and shallow wátters with a lot of aquatic vegetation
- 24.They have similar characteristics with salamanders
- 25.The scientific name is Ambystoma mexicanum